To: Mr. James Lee
From: Emily Park
Subject: _____ (A)

Dear Mr. Lee,

I hope this message finds you well. I'm writing to inform you that I've recently noticed a water leak in the bathroom of my unit (Unit 3B). The leak appears to be coming from under the sink, and water is slowly pooling on the floor.

I wanted to check with you about the proper steps to take to get this repaired. Should I contact a plumber directly, or would you prefer to arrange for someone to inspect it? I'm concerned that if it's not addressed soon, it may cause further damage.

Please let me know how you'd like to proceed at your earliest convenience. I'd be happy to provide access to my unit for repairs at a time that works best for you or the repair service.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best regards,

Emily Park

The first step to becoming a Cancer Care Foundation (CCF) volunteer is to call our Human Resources Department at 1-234-567-8900 for all the information you will need. We will ask you to complete an application and then discuss the role of a volunteer and your area of interest. A CCF practice manager, clinical manager or volunteer will contact you with a start date. You may select the days you want to volunteer, although we ㉠ do require a minimum of two hours. CCF volunteers represent a wide range of ages, ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds, and cancer experiences. They are men, women, retirees, former patients, professionals and homemakers. They volunteer for different reasons: Some volunteer because they have had cancer treatment or cared for someone with cancer. Some want to stay active during retirement and put their free time to good use. Others volunteer out of a desire to be part of the community support network to support cancer patients and their families. Whatever your reason may be, we appreciate you choosing CCF and we hope your experience is rewarding.

24. 다음 글의 요지로 가장 적절한 것은?

I used to think that the whole purpose of life was to pursue happiness. Everyone said the path to happiness was success, so I searched for the ideal job, the perfect boyfriend, the beautiful apartment. But instead of ever feeling fulfilled, I felt anxious and adrift. Eventually, I decided to go to graduate school for positive psychology to learn what truly makes people happy. But what I discovered there changed my life. The data showed that chasing happiness can actually make people unhappy. Even though life is getting objectively better by nearly every measurable standard, more people are feeling hopeless, depressed, and alone. According to the research, what predicts this despair is not a lack of happiness. It's a lack of something else, a lack of meaning in life.

- ① 오늘날 사람들은 생활이 나아지면서 더 큰 행복을 느낀다.
- ② 진정한 행복은 직장, 성공, 그리고 인간관계에서 비롯된다.
- ③ 불안과 우울은 긍정심리학을 공부하면 다스릴 수 있다.
- ④ 진정한 행복은 행복을 추구하는 게 아니라 삶의 의미를 찾는 데서 온다.

25. 밑줄 친 (A), (B)에 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것은?

Not only will I tell you about the wonderfully good things that happen when you get sleep, but the alarmingly bad things that happen when you don't get enough, both for your brain and for your body. Let me start with the brain and the functions of learning and memory, because what we've discovered over the past 10 or so years is that you need sleep after learning to essentially hit the save button on those new memories so that you don't (A). But recently, we discovered that you also need sleep before learning to actually prepare your brain, almost like (B) ready to initially soak up new information. And without sleep, the memory circuits of the brain essentially become waterlogged, as it were, and you can't absorb new memories.

- ① (A) memorize, (B) a clean slate
- ② (A) absorb, (B) a sharp tool
- ③ (A) forget, (B) a dry sponge
- ④ (A) recall, (B) an empty page
